The file regarding the enfranchisement of Associations in Tiri is before the member.

This being the first time several of them were not aware of the rule that they must themselves apply for enfranchisement. In some cases delays in presenting applications have been condoned.

Further all the elaborate procedure and long time allowed at each stage of the election proceedings in the case of general Constituencies are unnecessary in the case of Special Interests represented by Associations.

It seems therefore necessary to relax the time limitations in their cases & enable them to send representations in time. Ask for orders.

Sgd The time limitations
10/11/26 referred to in the D.C's letter have perhaps necessarily to be relaxed

Sgd 10/11/26 Time cannot be extended without altering the rule.
Report will be taken, if approved,
